Tartarian's Poor Performance the Racing Feature Yesterday.

Briefs Submitted in the Bronson-Monmouth Park Suit.

B. Morris Picks Up Two Purses at Hawthorne.

The unpleasant feature of the racing at Linden yesterday was the performance of Tartarian. This brother to Taragon was a warm favorite in the sixth race, and despite the fact that a great deal of money went in on him, his price remained at generous figures. Exactly what happened to Tartarian during the race could not be seen from the stand, for the fog and rain almost anxious to win. Mr. Rowe says that society. when he dropped the flag Tartarian The modus operandi of the Lawyers submitted briefs to Vice-Chansellor Pitney yesterday in the case of Tracey Bronson vs. Monmouth Park Counsel for the Jockey Club argued that the race track was a private institution and could refuse admittance to any person objectionable to the management. Bronson's lawyer contended that Monmouth Park was a place of public amusement. The decision will be handed down in a few days.

Major Daly was evidently feeling very good yesterday. His people thought they had a good chance to win, and they played him heavily. In one of the breaks, however, the Major got the better of Mike Bergen and he sailed around the track at a lively gait. On his second turn he spied a hole in the fence and bolted through it. He cleared a ditch in true hunter style, and when last seen was making a bee-line for Jersey City. He was caught before reaching that point.

The Linden track was not nearly in so bad condition as owners and trainers exof two years ago the track has been con-siderably improved and the drainage is excellent. . . .

The book programmes for the Elizebeth meeting are out. Secretary McIntyre has arranged the various events in very at-tractive fashion, and horseman are loud in their praises of his skill.

After a few more races Snapper Gar-son will be ready to give Aloha away.

Green B. Morris picked up two purses at Hawthorne Park yesterday with La Julve and Judge Morrow.

Lamplighter worked a mile and a quarter at Hawthorne Park yesterday in 2.18. The work was easily done, and it impressed the onlockers. Joe Ullman is confident that Clifford will win, and he offered last night to bet $700 saxinst $1,000 that Clifford would beat Lamplighter.

Orders beat Wah Jim in the last race. Had Taral gone on with Wah Jim the chances are that the sprinter would have been so far in front at the head of the stretch that he would have had time to fall down and then go on and win.

Sims rode two winners yesterday, and be earned his money in both events. He had the hardest kind of work to land Dalsyrian and Enfield.

was head and head with Minnenana, it the front rank. The horses had not zone far when Daly pulled up and took Tartarian to the outside. Around the turn Patrol Judge Fitzgerald got a view of the situation, and he reported that Daly was riding in apathetic fashion on the outside of his field.

The judges called M. T. Donovan before them and the latter explained that Daly was a green boy and probably did not know how to break. Daly himself said he did not think it was going to be break, and so pulled up. The judges, of course, put on their most severe look and dismissed the case. The evidence of the starter and patrol judge was of no walue in their eyes, apparently.

No questions were asked regarding Sandowne's race of a few days ago when he ran a beautiful and consistent tenth throughout his race. Yesterday he developed amazing speed, and won in a gallop by haif a dozen lengths. Such performances as these, if permitted to go unquestioned, will speedly cause the public to lose confidence in the Linden track.

waised into the room of a colored woman named Jennie Dobson, at 33 West Third street and, pointing a big 38-calibre revolver at her, threatened to shoot her. The sirl had not got out of bed. She ran down the two flights of stairs leading to the street, followed by McCali. Without clothing she ran down the street, screaming at the top of her voice, and followed by a crowd, which quickly collected. Finally she dashed into a cigar store, just as Policeman Sullivan, of the Mercer street station, came up.

At sight of him, McCall tried to get away, but Sullivan spotted him among the crowd, and, after a short chase, arrested the fellow and took him to Jefferson Market Court.

McCall threw the pistol away when he saw the policeman, but it was found later and brought to court.

McCall lives at 138 West Third street, and had been quite intimate with the Dobson woman. Jealousy is said to be the cause for his threat to shoot. He is a race-track tout.
